Sponsor and Maids.

Miss Eva Comer, of Birmingham, Ala., daughter of Governor Braxton R. Comer, of that State, has been selected by the Sons of Veterans as sponsor for the South-at-large at the Confederate Reunion, to be held here May 21st to June 3d. Miss Julia Fulton Williams, of Yazoo City, Miss., daughter of Hon. John Sharp Williams, and Miss Amy Motter Worth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Worth, of No. 1725 Park Avenue, and granddaughter of Commodore Matthew F. Maury, of the Confederate Navy, will be maids of honor to Miss Comer, who is a decided beauty and a typical Southern girl.

The group will be a distinguished trio, and will doubtless attract much attention during the approaching reunion period.

Aunspangh-Walters.

The home of Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth Walters, No. 1420 Park Avenue, was the scene of a pretty marriage yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, when her daughter, Mary Patterson, was married to Mr. Robert Clayton Aunspangh, of Norfolk. Rev. Dr. Jere Witherspoon officiating.

The parlors and hall were profusely decorated in white roses, with smilax, ferns and white candles, and the ceremony was performed in front of a mass of palms. A stringed band furnished the music.

The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Nellie Christian Walters, who wore a dainty lingerie gown and a white Leghorn hat, and carried pink sweet peas. Mr. Frederick Aunspangh, the groom's brother, was best man.

The bride was gowned in white marquisette trimmed in panne velvet and lace, and worn with a white lace hat. Her flowers were lilies of the valley.

After a trip to New York and Niagara Mr. and Mrs. Aunspangh will make their home in Norfolk.

son Myers, son of Mrs. Martha McRorie Myers and the late William W. Myers, took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents, No. 2503 East Marshall Street. Rev. Robert A. Woodward, of St. John's Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony.

The hall and parlors were canvased in white and decorated with palms, ferns, smilax and white cut flowers. Mr. Philip Powers played the wedding march and several appropriate selections during the ceremony.

The bride's sister, Mrs. John Hirschberg, was matron of honor, and wore a pretty toilet of white mull trimmed with insets of lace and rose embroidery. Her bouquet was of La France roses. Captain William Myers was best man, and the bride's brother, John Hirschberg, acted as ring bearer.

The bride entered with her father. She was stylishly gowned in pale gray chiffon cloth and wore a leghorn hat trimmed with pink and green. Her flowers were lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride and groom were entertained in the bride's home on Tuesday evening. Numerous bridal gifts include cut glass, silver and Tiffany glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers left yesterday for Norfolk, where they will take a steamer of the Old Dominion line for New York. After May 15th they will be at home, at No. 1022 West Grace Street.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Armistead Borland, of Norfolk; Mr. George Aiken Bailey, of Mr. Aiky, N. C.; and Mr. Arthur Bailey, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Tompkins-Sarvey.

Miss Lily Wellford Sarvey, daughter of the late Rufus H. and Ann Bolling Sarvey, was quietly married to Mr. William Royston Tompkins, of Caroline county, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tompkins, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the home of her brother, Mr. Rufus H. Sarvey, Jr., No. 914 Cumberland Street. Rev. Landon R. Mason, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, performed the ceremony.

Decorations were very pretty in pink shaded candles and palms, the floors being covered with white. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Booker Sarvey, who wore a gown of white chiffon, and carried sweet peas. Mr. Rufus H. Sarvey, Jr., was best man.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Walter D. Sarvey, by whom she was given away. She wore a pretty costume of Alice blue silk and a picture hat, and carried the marriage vow.

Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins will make an extended Southern tour, returning by way of the Jamestown Exposition. They will reside at "Ormsby," Caroline county. Guests from a distance who attended the ceremony were Mr. C. W. Tompkins, of Caroline county, the groom's mother, and his sisters, Mrs. Mary Kase, Mrs. Cabell Reeves and Miss Agnes Tompkins; Mrs. Sallie M. Sarvey and daughters, of Norfolk.

Atkinson-Atkinson.

A pretty marriage took place yesterday evening at 7 o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Atkinson, No. 2400 East Broad Street, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Annie Norma Atkinson, and Mr. Leon Abbott Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Atkinson, Rev. Charles E. Stuart, of Venable Street Baptist Church, performed the ceremony.

Decorations were in palms, ferns and lilies. Miss Louise Goode presided at the piano, and played "O Promise Me" during the ceremony, in addition to the usual marches.

Miss Edwina Atkinson, sister of the bride, and Miss Ethel Wharton, cousin of the bride, were the flower girls. They wore pretty frocks of white organdy and carried large bunches of ferns. Mr. Leland C. Atkinson, the bride's brother, was best man.

The bride entered with her father. She wore a modest going-away gown of dark blue with hat and gloves to match, and carried Bride poses.

Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson will take a Northern tour, and will be at home after May 1st at No. 2400 East Broad Street.

Moale-Proffitt.

The marriage of Miss Mamie Proffitt, daughter of Mrs. William H. Proffitt, to Mr. William Travers Moale took place quietly at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the bride's home, No. 314 East Cary Street. Rev. Dr. Joseph Mackay being the celebrant.

Mrs. Spencer Cornick, as matron of honor, wore a gown of maize-colored silk and a blue hat with plumes. The bride entered with Mr. Spencer Cornick. She was gowned in dark blue cloth, with hat and gloves to match. Mr. and Mrs. Moale will tour the North, and will reside after May 5th at No. 913 West Main Street.

Edwards-Sprattley.

A marriage of much interest in this city and of much interest in the South, was celebrated at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in No. 1000 East Clay Street, when Miss Lucile Wilson Sprattley became the bride of Mr. Albert Sidney Edwards, of Surry Courthouse, Va. Rev. Dr. John Moncre performed the ceremony.

Palms, ferns and bunches of pink shaded candles in antique silver candleabra were used in the decorations. Miss Carrie Morris, of Dendron, Va., played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bride party entered, and "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony.

Little Miss Julia L. Sprattley, as ring-bearer, wore a pretty frock of pale blue silk and carried the ring on a silver waiter.

The bride was attired in a traveling suit of pale gray chiffon cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a bouquet of the marriage vow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left immediately for Baltimore and other Northern points. They will reside at Surry Courthouse, Va., after May 15th.

Mr. Edwards is clerk of Surry county, and is very prominent in that section of the State. A number of his friends attended the marriage.

Smith-Mancher.

St. Mary's German Catholic Church was the scene of a pretty but quiet marriage yesterday morning, when Miss Anna Margaret Mancher, became the bride of Mr. Alonzo Thomas Smith, of Buckners, Louisiana county.

The bride was becomingly attired in a tailored gown of gray cloth, with picture hat to match.

The maid of honor was Miss Rosa M. Mancher, M. D., of Carrollton, Pa., a cousin of the bride, who wore a gown of blue silk with hat and gloves to match.

The groom was attended by Mr. E. H. Dillard, of Richmond, Va.

The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Sophia Mancher, of Buckners, and, having visited here often, is well known.

The groom is the oldest son of Mr. M. F. Smith, a prosperous farmer of Louisiana county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Edward, of St. Mary's.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith drove to Union Station, where they took the westbound train for an extended trip.

Nelson-Sanford.

On the 15th of April, at the Baptist Church in Jefferson County, Va., at 7 P. M., Miss Edith Reva, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. H. Sanford, and Mr. Thomas Franklin Nelson, of Rappahannock, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. H. Sanford, father of the bride, who was assisted by his son, Rev. Ryland Sanford, of Hampton, Va.

The bride, prettily attired in a princess gown of point and d'esprit over satin, wearing a veil, entered the church with her sister, Miss Nellie May Sanford, who was maid of honor. The groom entered with his best man, Mr. Edward Nelson, of Lunenburg.

Preceding these were the little brother of the bride, Master Paul Sanford, and little Miss Maude Nelson, sister of the groom, who officiated at the gates.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Bowden, of Richmond; Misses Mary Nelson, Juliet Robson and Mamie Latham, of Rappahannock; Miss Bessie Latham, of Jefferson, and Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong, of Waterloo. The groomsmen were Messrs. James Nelson, James Doyle, Moffett Spilman and William Corbin, of Rappahannock, and Messrs. Hugh Crigler and Luther Pierce, of Culpeper, Va.

Witnesses, J. Mortimer Button and James Button, of Jefferson; Mr. Waters, of Amesville, and Mr. Curtis of Culpeper, acted as ushers.

Mr. Timberman Weds Miss Lathan at Alexandria—Rader-Funkhouser Nuptials.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CREWE, VA., April 24.—The home of Mr. W. W. Ellett, on Maryland Avenue, was the scene of a very fashionable and beautiful wedding this morning, when his daughter, Mamie Janette, became the bride of Mr. Frank Thews, of Lawrenceville, Va.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. C. E. Elmore, of the Christian Church. The color scheme was green and white, parlors being beautifully decorated in white violets and evergreens. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Tobin. Miss Ellett, the bride's sister, in white silk pongee, and carrying lilies of the valley, was maid of honor, with Mr. W. P. Taylor, of Crewe, as best man. The bride was charming in an elaborate creation of white crepe de chine, built on tulle silk, hand-embroidered with delicate work. The groom's attire was arranged in a graceful high collar, and her flowers were white roses in shower bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Thews boarded an east-bound train for the exposition. They will visit Baltimore, Washington and other Northern points, and after May 5th will be at home in Lawrenceville, Va., where Mr. Thews is employed in the Southern Railway shops as night foreman.

The immediate relatives and members of the bride party were tendered an elaborate midnight luncheon the night preceding.

Mrs. Thews, who is exceedingly popular here, will be greatly missed, especially in the Christian Church, of which she was a devoted and useful member.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carnow, of Lawrenceville; Messrs. John, Will and George Thews, brothers of the groom, of Lawrenceville; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tunstall, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Thomas, of Hampton; Misses Maud and Helen Gregory and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gregory, of Appomattox.
